Congratulations on your upcoming wedding. We, at Maxim Events, will work with you and your families to make the planning and execution of your reception an enjoyable and easy task. You will have unlimited access to your on site event planner by any media means you prefer and you can expect a speedy response, usually within 24 hours. We will work around your schedules and meet with you at times that are convenient for you and your families. We realize that all the planning seems like an overwhelming task, but our expertise and willingness to make your reception experience an enjoyable and memorable affair allows you to focus on all the other details that will go into your perfect day. We offer informative tips and vendor referrals that will save you time and effort on all aspects of your reception. You will find our packages to be a great value and our venue, with its glass dance floor and beautiful handcrafted bar to offer a big city feel with small town personal service. Thank you for considering Maxim Events for one of the most memorable days of your life. You can rely on Maxim to make it happen.
